Our Passion to Grow Continues

2005-2006 International ur Program states clearly that service is the mission of Lions clubs, but members are their lifeblood. Consequently, I emphasized that membership and club growth be a top priority this year. With this Passion to Grow in mind, the goal of Plus One became an identifying mark of our year together. I challenged every club president to achieve a positive net growth of one or more members and each district governor to expand the district by at least one new club. To further emphasize the importance of growth, attractive new awards are being made available to Lions who are successful in meeting these objectives.

How are we proceeding in our passion to strengthen the framework of our individual clubs and the entire association?

Admittedly, experiencing a net growth in membership remains a challenge, and we must all exercise our passion for reaching this objective in the most dedicated and energetic manner possible. Our total membership, at last report, stands at 1,307,549, truly not as high as we would have liked, but we did bring in 59,313 new Lions. I also emphasized the need to invite more women into our clubs, and I am pleased to report that, thus far during 2005-2006, Lions clubs worldwide have inducted 20,262 women, bringing their total number to 224,884. This is, most assuredly, an encouraging sign for the future of our association. It is obvious that women are increasingly discovering the service opportunities available to them through membership in a Lions club, and are also, I'm proud to say, putting their passion to serve into accepting important positions of leadership in their clubs, districts and internationally.

Also, in regard to membership growth, more Leos are choosing to join Lions clubs once their service in a Leo club comes to an end. This is heartening and I applaud Lions clubs that recognize their passion for growth by inviting these young people who already understand the need for volunteerism in the community to continue their commitment to give of themselves on behalf of others.

In the area of extension, 292 new Lions clubs have been chartered this year and latest reports show our worldwide club strength now stands at 45,037. We also have also added 42 club branches this year, bringing our total to 667 to answer needs in locales where traditional Lions clubs are unable to do so. There are currently 156 New Century Lions Clubs and 231 Campus Clubs thus giving access to individuals who would not otherwise have the opportunity to grasp an outlet for their passion to volunteer in their communities.

Our international Mission 30 Team of experienced Lions is continuing to move ahead to support growth around the world, and I know that the success we shall experience as an association will be due in large measure to the passion of these Lions. In addition to this team, a total of 4,675 Certified Guiding Lions have completed training and are assisting Lions clubs in strengthening their capacity to meet community and human needs.

Lions Clubs International continues to expand its frontiers. This year, we have added three new nations to our global family-the Republic of Kazakhstan, Somalia and the Republic of Maldives, bringing the spirit of "We Serve" to 197 countries and geographic areas. Additional nations have been recognized as strong possibilities for the introduction of Lions clubs and we look forward to welcoming them into our association in the near future.

Lions, our determination to enhance our club and membership strength must continue to be a paramount objective this year, and every year, for it is fundamental to the spirit of our Passion To Excel.

Official Notice: Convention Call

Boston Prepares to Welcome International Visitors

In compliance with Article VI, Section 3, of the International Constitution and By-Laws, I hereby issue the Official Call for the 2006 International Convention. Our 89th International Convention will be held in Boston, Massachusetts, United States of America, beginning Friday, June 30 and continuing through Tuesday, July 4.

Our convention will be hosted in one of the most historic cities in the United States, indeed, in the world. Boston is a favorite destination for business meetings, sports enthusiasts, all manner of conventions, and tourists interested in the very finest in shopping, dining and sight-seeing. Lions and their families from around the world will participate in the exciting plenary sessions and witness a number of events, among them the installation of the new international president, a warm welcome to the 2006 Humanitarian Award recipient, along with the stirring flag ceremony and an important Campaign SightFirst II presentation. The big parade on Saturday will bring together thousands of registrants to once again emphasize the international nature of the association, informative seminars will strengthen our foundation and voting on Tuesday will signal the beginning of a new year for Lions worldwide.

The Lions of Multiple District 33 will welcome their international visitors and ensure that their stay will be truly enjoyable. It will be my honor to share with you in reviewing how the Passion To Excel guided us throughout the year. Signed by me at Oak Brook, Illinois, United States of America, this first day of April 2006.

Sincerely, Dr. Ashok Mehta, International President

Focus on Membership Growth

Does your club find itself in need of additional members? Would having more members enable you to carry out additional projects or help your club be more self-sufficient?

If you said yes to either of the above, know that you can find help implementing membership growth strategies. There are several resources available from LCI, including the Year-Round Growth Program, the Membership Key Awards and Orientation Guides, designed to help you and your club feel more comfortable about inviting new members.

Year-Round Growth Program

The Year-Round Growth Program (YRG) represents a shift in focus from the periodic recruiting drives to the idea of continual recruiting. YRG is designed to provide members with strategies and tips for continuous recruiting and to reward members for their recruiting efforts. Components of the program include: an optional year-round membership outreach strategy and the Membership Key Awards.

The optional year-round membership outreach strategy is a tool that Lions can use for continuous recruiting. An outreach calendar was created as a way to keep members motivated and suggest a specific group to recruit each month. Each month has a different focus area so that a wide range of potential members can be approached throughout the Lions year. Consider using this list, or a list that is similar, as a reminder to recruit and as a planning guide for your year round activities. (For example, in July/August, your club could focus on recruiting women by planning activities that would appeal to women.) Utilizing a type of outreach strategy can help every Lion feel comfortable with inviting new members.

For more information on how to use an outreach strategy and participate in the Year-Round Growth Program, call 630 571-5466, ext. 322 or e-mail the Membership Operations Department at memberops@lionsclubs.org.

The Membership Key Award program is an excellent way to reward every Lion who has taken the extra step to recruit new members. Membership Key Awards are based on the number of new members a Lion has sponsored. Currently, there are keys for the recruitment of 2, 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 50, 75, 100, 150, 200, 250, 300, 350, 400, 450 and 500 members. Each key is awarded to the sponsor after the new member has been a Lion for a year and day. Keys are issued from а International Headquarters based on the Monthly Membership Reports (MMR) submitted by club secretaries.

Keys play a vital part in rewarding members who recruit. They symbolize the proud heritage of Lions clubs and the strong commitment of each Lion. For more information on obtaining Membership Key Awards, email the Membership Operations Department at memberops@lionsclubs.org pr call 630 571-5466, ext. 340. By e-mailing the Membership Operations Department, members can also find out their key award history including information on when they received their last key, how many members they have sponsored and how many additional members they have to sponsor to obtain a higher-level Membership Key.

Through the Year-Round Growth Program, members, sponsors and clubs receive recognition for their recruiting efforts. Based upon the number of members recruited, existing Lions can also receive: a personalized letter from the International President, a Membership Excellence Pin and/or Banner Patch, and of course, Membership Keys. Clubs can receive the Membership Excellence Banner Patch and Flag Set.

Orientation Guides

Orientation Guides are designed to provide club leadership with ideas on how to conduct member orientations. Orientation is a valuable tool. Consider that a proper orientation can assist new and existing Lions in feeling welcomed into the club and into LCI as a whole. A Lion who feels comfortable within their club is more likely to remain actively engaged. For more information on how to conduct an orientation, or how to participate in one, contact the Membership Operations Department at memberops@lionsclubs.org or call 630 571-5466, ext. 355.

Focusing on continuous membership growth and membership growth programs can help your club in a number of ways. Membership growth enables a club to remain a vital part of the community and enables it to reach out to more people in need. (Individuals benefit from inviting new members as well. While inviting new members, each Lion can share their experiences and communicate the pride they feel as a Lion.) Membership growth programs give current club members the opportunity to receive recognition for their recruitment efforts.

Have ideas on how LCI can help in your recruiting efforts? Contact the Membership Operations Department at memberops@lionsclubs.org or call Celebrate Membership Growth at the Key Award Breakfast, July 2, 2006.

After a long hiatus, the Membership Key Award Breakfast is being held again this year. We are looking forward to the re-emergence of this tradition.

The breakfast will feature a keynote speaker addressing the importance of membership growth in the association. Commemorative gifts will also be presented to each Key Award holder. Attendance is open to all Membership Key Award holders and one guest. The ticket price is US$25. Business attire is required and seats are limited. To register for the breakfast, see the Optional Ticketed Events section of the Convention Registration and Hotel Reservation Form on our Web site.

From the Desk of I.D. Terry Graham

S ince the middle of January, Lion Jean and I have been travelling to all parts of North America and parts of the world. Everywhere we go we are well received and the Lions are doing great work in their clubs and districts.

The International Board of Directors met in Slovenia from March 22 - 29. 2006. We met in a small coastal town of Portoroz. Of course the scenery was beautiful, however you can't see much from inside a meeting room. Lion Jean said the surrounding countryside was a sight to behold. We did have an opportunity to visit the Postojna Caves. They are about 350 feet below ground. A small train gradually descends about 2 kilometres to the cave area. There are huge caverns with many stalactite structures forming from the floor to the roof. The temperature remains a constant 46 degrees Fahrenheit. A good site to visit.

The committees brought 63 resolutions to the table. Some of these included:

- Authorized use of the Lions membership relationship to network, discuss and promote a member's professional and/or private commercial interests; however, prohibited unsolicited promotion and/or use of mailing lists, directories or other listing for unsolicited mailings.
- Adopted a resolution to provide a family dues structure (effective January 1, 2007) to encourage membership growth for family friendly clubs.
- Adopted resolution to provide that the convention of a single or sub-district shall be eligible to endorse a second vice president or international director candidate only if the single or sub-district meets the minimum district requirements. (35 clubs & 1250 members) For several years the board has tried to encourage districts to either redistrict or gain members to be come a full district.
- Approved charter cancellation of 329 clubs (4,954 members). This is always a task that is regrettable.
- Revised 100% District Governor Award rules. These will take effect for 2006-7

- Approved 61 Standard, International Assistance and Core 4 grants totaling US$2,696,285.
- Approved funding support provision for the second phase of the 2006-07 Faculty Development Institute program.
- Approved grant under the Urban Market Membership Development Grant Program for District A-711 (Ontario, Canada)
- Approved a club extension training initiative for North America, South America and Australia/New Zealand, in which LCI will provide a multiple district extension team with an opportunity to receive updated, fieldbased training on new club development.
- Approved creation of an online database of Lions club community service and fundraising projects.
- Adopted guidelines for a Lions Emergency Management Team (LEMT) concept to aid Lions when responding to natural disasters and other emergencies.
- Changed the Lions club's relationship with Leo clubs to a "Lions club sponsored affiliation."
- Approved a new "Lions Serving Humanity Exchange Program" to promote the provision of humanitarian service through community involvement and international cooperation.

The clubs will receive more information either directly or in the Lion Magazine articles.

Prior to my visiting a District Convention, I usually receive the DG newsletter. One such district was MD14E, which is the Pittsburgh area. On the front cover of the November issue, in large print, was the membership number of 1216. DG Lee when on to explain he received a letter from International that they were to become a transitional district. He challenged his MERL team, district officers and the membership of 14E not to let this happen. When we visited the district on April 8, the district membership was at 1286 and the governor was confident they would be over 1300 by years end. Was it luck? I think the district wanted the full voting rights and privileges of a full district and the membership took the appropriate action. This is a success story I felt I should share with you. Let's not take our membership for granted. Ask someone to join your club.

Let's not take our membership for granted. Ask someone to join your club.

The International convention is fast approaching. It's not to late to register and join in on the fellowship and learning experience of an International Convention. Boston will be a wonderful city to visit and the host committee will be sure to make your trip a memorable experience. We hope to see you there.

As this is the last newsletter for the Lions year, we want to say thank you for this opportunity to serve on the International board. It is truly an experience of a lifetime.

Have a safe and relaxing summer.

Yours in Lionism

Lion Terry Graham

LCIF Grants 101 Everything a Lion Needs to Know About Securing a Grant

by Jay Copp

Wour community has a pressing need, and your club or district wants to help. Yet you are not quite sure if there are enough funds to accomplish your mission. Hmm, the wheels start turning. I wonder if LCIF can help?

Yes, it can. Five hundred times a year LCIF can. That's how many grants LCIF typically provides to Lions every year. Not every grant proposal from Lions is accepted by LCIF, but Lions who understand the basic ground rules for grants and can work within them stand a good chance of being given an LCIF grant.

Humanitarian Focus

Lions interested in applying for an LCIF grant need to know the basic mission of LCIF. The foundation funds humanitarian projects, not projects that are only community-oriented. So say Lions want to create a playground. That's a worthy project, but not one LCIF considers humanitarian. On the other hand, an athletic complex for disabled youth is considered a humanitarian initiative.

LCIF's grants typically focus on: blindness prevention/sight restoration, youth services and development, health promotion/services to the disabled, and emergency relief/ reconstruction assistance. These are admittedly broad categories, which allows Lions to be creative and responsive to local needs in applying for grants.

The flip side to the broad funding guidelines is that Lions may be uncertain if they are on the right track in securing an LCIF grant. The best way to determine if your project idea has merit is to directly ask LCIF for guidance, and we'll work with you on a grant proposal.

LCIF is judicious in exactly how its funds may be applied. It normally provides capital funding for equipment and infrastructure needs. For example, it will fund the expansion of a health clinic and new equipment for a health clinic but usually does not pay for a brand-new medical center or operating expenses of a health center. LCIF favors projects that are self-sustaining, have a strong Lions' identity and are connected to an entity with a proven track record.

What steps do I take to apply for a grant?

• Identify a humanitarian need in your community (or, in the case of an International Assistance Grant, find a need in a developing country).

• Secure partners including other Lions clubs in the districts. (For International Assistance Grants, a club in a developed country must partner with a club in a developing country.) LCIF grants are for larger-scale projects too big for a single club.

• Plan for a significant Lions' identification and involvement with the project. Lions have to do more than just "throw money" at a need. Service needs to be integrated into the project. Also, Lions must be front and center on the project as it proceeds. It has to belong to Lions and that has to be obvious to anyone who comes into contact with the project.

• Draw up an itemized budget. Indicate whether funds from various sources are collected or pledged and the dates when pledged funds are expected to be collected.

• Obtain the endorsement of the district or multiple district as appropriate.

Some grant proposals come to LCIF with all steps meticulously completed and ready to go. Other Lions contact LCIF before submitting the grant proposal and secure advice and direction. If there is any uncertainty or impediments, it is best to contact LCIF.

Questions and Answers

We've all had a teacher who told us the only dumb question is the one not asked. That statement usually was followed by a profound silence. Well, don't worry. We'll ask the questions you may have about grants for you.

Is there grant money available for my club?

Yes, under certain circumstances a club can identify a local humanitarian need and then partner with other clubs in addressing that need. The district governor needs to approve a standard grant application. Core 4 grants typically are initiated on the district level. Districts and multiple districts also can seek a SightFirst grant (upon working with a SightFirst technical adviser). The International Assistance Grant (IAG) allows a sponsoring Lions club or district to partner with a host club or district in the country where the project will take place. Again, the district governor must approve the grant application.

What qualities does LCIF look for in a grant application?

The budget must show ample funding from local Lions' organizations, have a strong Lions' identity and involvement, be endorsed by the district and involve at least two to three clubs. The project must address an important humanitarian need, serve a relatively large population, be cost effective and be beyond local fundraising capability.

When should a grant application be filed?

Complete applications must be sent to LCIF at least 60 days before an LCIF Board of Trustees meeting. The board meets three times a year -October/November, March/April and June/July. SightFirst grants are awarded in January, May and August. For grant application deadlines or other questions, contact LCIF.

How do I get more information?

Contact LCIF at 630-571-5466, ext. 580; e-mail LCIF at lcif@lionsclubs.org; or download from the LCIF Web site (www.lcif.org) How to Apply for an LCIF Standard Grant (LCIF-109), the Standard Grant Application/Criteria (LCIF-27) or other grant brochures and applications.

Types of Grants

That's a lot of information to absorb about grants—a sort of LCIF Grants 101. But there's more to know. Here is the list of types of LCIF grants.

Standard grants provide matching funds up to US$75,000 for large-scale projects addressing humanitarian needs such as medical equipment and facilities, homes, and schools for the disabled and youth. Any district (single, sub or multiple) may apply for a Standard grant. A district may have two Standard grant applications or approved Standard grants in process at any one time.

Examples of recent standard grants: US$17,000 for Lions in Netherlands (District 110-C0) to expand a hospice care center, US$75,000 for Lions in Minnesota (MD-5M) to establish a children's hearing center, US$50,000 for Lions in Germany (111-OS) to purchase equipment for a cancer research center, US$22,297 for Lions of Colombia (F-3) to assist a center for children with disabilities and US$75,000 for Lions in Japan (330-C) to build an orphanage in Iraq.

International Assistance Grants (IAG) fund partnership projects between Lions clubs in at least two countries. Grants are available between US$5,000 and $30,000 on a matching basis to fund smaller-scale development projects in needy countries. A district may only have only one International Assistance Grant (IAG) in process or approved at any one time.

Examples of recent IAGs: US$15,000 for Lions in Korea (354-C) to supply an ambulance for a hospital in Gujarat, India; US$16,075 for Italian Lions (108-AB) to undertake a rural water supply and sanitation project in Ethiopia; and US$20,000 for Lions in North Carolina (31-B) to undertake an eye care mission in Bolivia. Core 4 grants target four urgent needs: preserving sight, combating disability, promoting health and serving youth. Grants are available for amounts up to US$200,000 on a three-to-one matching basis. Current Core 4 initiatives include Lions-Quest, Special Olympics Opening eyes, children's photoscreening, diabetes prevention/ treatment and low vision treatment/ services. A multiple district may have one Core 4 Grant application or approved Core 4 Grant in process at any one time.

Examples of recent Core 4 grants: US$25,000 for Lions in Canada (A-15) to expand Lions-Quest, US$75,000 for Lions in Michigan (11-A1) to expand the Lions Hearing Center of Southwestern Michigan's hearing program and US$49,680 for 45 Lions-Habitat for Humanity homes in the Ivory Coast (403-A).

Emergency grants up to US$10,000 are awarded for relief aid after a natural disaster. District governors must apply for the grant.

Examples of recent Emergency grants: US$10,000 for Lions in Chile (T-1) for earthquake relief; US$10,000 for Lions in Madagascar (403-B) for cyclone relief; US$5,000 for Lions in India (322-C3) for flood relief and US$10,000 for Lions in Canada (A-3) for flood relief.

Major Catastrophe grants for US$50,000 and above are awarded for longer-term reconstruction projects following major calamities. Major catastrophe grants were provided for the tsunami disaster; Hurricane Katrina; the Pakistan earthquake; September 11 and the Gujarat, India, earthquake.

SightFirst grants fight preventable and reversible blindness by supporting eye health care delivery systems, training and infrastructure development. Lions districts work with their regional SightFirst technical advisor in developing SightFirst grant applications and project proposals. Completed applications must be signed and certified by the technical advisor, the district/multiple district's SightFirst chairperson and the district governor (or council chairperson in the case of multiple district-initiated applications).

Examples of recent SightFirst grants: US$105,500 for Lions in Mexico (District B-7) for a cataract screening and surgery campaign, US$165,000 for Lions in Cape Verde (District 403-A) for a comprehensive eye care program and US$83,250 for Lions in India (District 323-H) to equip Udayagiri Lions Eye Hospital.

Lions, SightFirst Protect 10.5 Million Cameroonians from Blindness

ameroon, located in West Africa, has 16 million people, 230 ethnicities and one particularly gruesome blinding disease. "River blindness" is spread by the bite of small black flies that swarm around flowing water. The bites allow tiny worms to enter the body. The worms quickly multiply, leading to painful rashes, skin discoloration and, in severe cases, blindness.

The disease, technically called onchocerciasis, is endemic in all of the country's 10 provinces. Those afflicted are unable to work, harvest crops and care for their children.

But Lions of Cameroon have been successfully controlling the disease since the early 1990s with funding from SightFirst. More than 10.5 million Cameroonians at risk for river blindness have been protected. River blindness, which can't be cured, can be controlled through the medication Mectizan. Partnering with the Carter Center, other non-profits and national ministries of health, Lions and SightFirst have helped deliver more than 70 million Mectizan treatments in Cameroon and 10 other countries in Africa and the Americas since 1996. The pharmaceutical company Merck donates the Mectizan.

To continue to keep blindness at bay, the SightFirst Advisory Committee approved US$3.1 million in January for Cameroon Lions to continue their efforts against onchocerciasis. The grant will enable Lions to distribute a planned 7 million more treatments of Mectizan.

The latest grant for Cameroon extends the river blindness control program in seven provinces and begins treatments in the one province not covered. The treatments are done in partnership with the Carter Center, Helen Keller International, International Eye Foundation and PersPective.

The grant was among 13 totaling US$4.7 million approved by LCIF's SightFirst Advisory Committee. The other grants will enable Lions to provide cataract surgeries, upgrade eye hospitals and clinics, treat diabetic retinopathy and train eye health workers. Besides Cameroon, the grants were for projects in Argentina, Brazil, Ethiopia, India, Laos, Mexico, Nepal and Sri Lanka.

SightFirst is a global initiative of LCIF and Lions to prevent blindness and restore sight. LCIF has approved 771 grants in 89 countries for a total of US$187 million.

Grants are approved three times a year by the SightFirst Advisory Committee, composed of Lions international leaders and some of the world's foremost blindness prevention experts.

Campaign SightFirst II Gains Worldwide Momentum

s Campaign SightFirst II gains worldwide momentum, Lions' leadership in the international fight against blindness is being noticed and acknowledged. Lions Clubs International President Dr. Ashok Mehta has received messages of support and encouragement from many people - including a reigning monarch and one of the world's most distinguished and well-known journalists.

Walter Cronkite was often called "the most trusted man in America" during his 19 years as anchorman and managing editor of the CBS Evening News. His calm, evenhanded way of delivering even the most grave news earned him the respect of the American people and people around the world. So much so, that the Swedish word for anchorman is "Cronkiter." Since retiring in 1981 he has been active in environmental causes and has advocated international cooperation through the United Nations.

In these opening years of the 21st century, international cooperation is more important than ever if we are to overcome the worldwide problems that confront us. Preventable blindness is such a problem, threatening millions of people on all continents.

For more than 85 years, Lions Clubs International has been a model of international cooperation and, in the past 15 years, has established an unsurpassed record of achievement with coordinated projects that have saved millions of people around the world from blindness or severe vision loss.

I encourage all Lions to continue this extraordinary work by giving their full support to Campaign SightFirst II.

Walter Cronkite New York, February 2006

H.M Carl XVI Gustaf ascended to the Swedish throne in 1973. He is an avid outdoorsman and has deep appreciation for the natural world. While the monarchy in Sweden has a mostly ceremonial role, he has used his position to urge the acceptance of international environmental protection treaties. He is the honorary chairman of the World Organization of the Scout Movement and has received the organization's Bronze Wolf award. As king of Sweden, it is also his role to present the Nobel Prizes.

All living things on our planet are tied together in the intricate web of ecology. To meet the environmental challenges that face our world, they must be confronted on a global scale. We human beings are an intrinsic part of this web, and human problems must be addressed in the same way.

Through its coordinated worldwide programs and its ideals of fellowship and international understanding, Lions Clubs International has exemplified the global approach to humanitarian action. By working to eliminate preventable and reversible blindness, Lions have had a positive impact on the welfare of millions around the world. I believe that this important work must continue and I commend the effort that Lions are making through Campaign SightFirst II. I hope that all Lions will give the campaign their full support.

Model Club Spotlighted

International President Dr. Ashok Mehta received more than US$100,000 for Campaign SightFirst II during a recent visit to Model Clubs in Northeast India. The Lions Club of Howrah and the Lions Club of Siliguri Greater have reached their minimum goals of US$70,000 and US$35,000 respectively. The Clubs raised funds through personal gifts from members and non-members and by holding public fund-raising events. The Lions Club of Howrah is now working toward a challenge goal of US$100,000.

The Bangalore East Lions Club has reached its US$34,000 goal and is working toward a challenge goal of US$100,000. The Club's campaign will focus on individuals and corporations in Bangalore, one of India's leading centers of high-tech industry.

"All members are committed Lions and their only duty is to serve," said International Director Endorsee K.G. Ramakrishnamurthy, who helped motivate the Bangalore Club's Model Club effort. "They are leading India and the world in Campaign SightFirst II in helping to continue the work of the SightFirst program."

In the USA, the Muskegon North Lions Club has pledged its minimum goal of US$37,000 and is working toward a challenge goal of US$50,000. The Club's plans emphasize personal gifts. Because many Lion leaders in the area are eye-care professionals, the Club recognizes great potential in requesting gifts from members of that profession.

"We just jumped in with both feet," said Past International Director Dennis Cobler, a member of the Club and a Sector Coordinator in Campaign SightFirst II

Scotland/Oakland Library

After many years of debating the mere existence of the Scotland/Oakland Library, the Brant County Library Board finally approved the building of a brand new library on the existing site. In the fall of 2005, the old building was demolished and the new building erected. Being a longtime project of the South Brant Lions, the club volunteered to be in charge of all the outside landscaping. All materials and labour were donated. The landscaping was designed by Garden Thyme Design, the plant materials from Walter's Greenhouses and the sod from Blue Grass Sod Farms. All installations were completed by South Brant Lion's members Alvin Marr, Joe Keresturi, and Murray Smith, along with Murray's grandchildren and Lisa Gilbert, owner of Garden Thyme Design. Photos show the original and new libraries.

Tillsonburg Lion Honoured

Penny Drive

PDG Bob Davis urged all clubs in District A2 to save pennies for LFC to sponsor a Seeing Eye Dog. Tillsonburg Lions Club provided a wishing well to use for penny collections. Now that the Penny Drive is over, the well will continue to be used to raise more funds for LFC. In the cover photo, pictured at the presentation of $4000 that was partly raised through the Penny Drive is, left to right, Tillsonburg Club President John Newton, Bruce Kendrick, PDG Lion Bob Davis, and Royal Bank employee Irene McKnight.

Camp Trillium

A large equipment storage building, that was donated to Camp Trillium, was erected by the camp caretakers and several members of the South Brant Lions Club and their family volunteers. Approximately 160 manhours were required to complete the building. In return, Camp Trillium opened it's doors on February 21 and hosted the South Brant Lions for an appreciation dinner. Several Lioness members were also present at the dinner, along with members of the Windham Lions Club.

South Brant Lions also paid for a new $4000 PA systems. It was installed by Lion Bill Crawford and his son Michael, along with Camp Caretakers Roy McColm and Lioness Ann McLoud.

New Isolette

Kingston mother and grandmother Nancy Watts has written three books of poetry, the proceeds of which go toward buying an isolette for the Kingston General Hospital Neonatal Unit. The machine costs $35,000 and so far Nancy has raised $22,500 from book sales.

Nancy lost one grandchild before it was born, spurring her into action to help the Neonatal Department. Kingston is top of the list for handling premature babies, so this type of equipment is vital to their operations. After hearing about Nancy's project through a guest speaker at their club's dinner meeting, the Kingston Lions Club decided to not only top up the amount needed for one unit, but added another donation to purchase some other much needed equipment. In total the Lions gave $15,520. Pictured is Dr. Bob Connelly receiving cheques from Mitchell, Kingston Joint Ann Advancement Foundation, author Nancy Watts, Lion Darlene Greenlees and fellow Lions.

The Kemptville Lions Club is the sponsor of the Canadian Vision Care Team of volunteers. Lion Paul Mahabir the project coordinator and Lion Chal Conn the eyeglass collection coordinator along with Lions David McNaughtan, Albert

> It was truly a touching moment for all of us, seeing her smile ...

Dyks, Gail Osborne and Robert Stevenson have participated in these projects to Guyana, Trinidad & Tobago and most recently Grenada. Other Lions from District A-4 who had participated in the overseas projects are Lion Diane Green – Madawaska Valley Lions Club, Lion Ray Trudel- Barrhaven Lions Club, Lion Jim McGlade – Westport Lions Club and Lion Andrea Bedor.

The latest mission was to run a free eye care clinic for the poor of Grenada in early February. Some mornings the patients were arriving as early as 5:30 a.m. to line up for this "chance of a lifetime". As with every clinic we experienced many moments of joy, when we are able to provide eyeglasses to someone for the first time and they are able to see much better immediately. Amongst our first patients was a young girl about 10 years old who required quite a strong prescription, as luck had it we had her exact prescription in a nice small frame to suit her beautiful face within our inventory of 4,000 eyeglasses. It was truly a touching moment for all of us, seeing her smile, knowing that the little we have done will make such a great difference in this young person's life.

Another story is that of an elderly woman, who broke her glasses at least 10-years ago, and could not afford to purchase new ones. Once again we were able to find her prescription within our inventory and gave her better sight immediately. She was just thrilled, and with tears in her eyes told us how now she will be able to read her Bible once again, and see the hymns in her church book.

Lion Chal Conn assists a young girl with her new glasses.

The team came back home to Canada on a high, knowing that our goals for the clinic were surpassed and everything was a success. The success of this project is dependent on the support and assistance of many friends and Lions Clubs. Financial support and donated eyeglasses are greatly appreciated, please contact Lion Paul Mahabir by phone 613-258-5170 or by email pmahabir@yahoo.com for information on how you can assist in this most worthwhile project of bringing this "Gift of Sight" to those in need.

On Saturday April 1, the twelve Lions clubs and one Leo club in the Winchester area celebrated the completion of their five year commitment to the Renewing the Vision Campaign for the Winchester District Memorial Hospital.

Valley East Donates

Valley East Lions Club incoming president Lion Doug Christink made an initial contribution of $2000 to Fr. Gerald Lajeunesse, President of "maison la paix House." The new Palliative Care Hospice was set up to allow the ill to succumb somewhere other than the hospital if they so wish and with their families and loved ones with them. This is the first one of its kind in Northern Ontario and our Club is proud to be able to be the first contributor to this worthwhile project. At present they can house four patients at one time with their goal being 10 at one time.

Non-Motorized Parade

The Kemble Non-Motorized Christmas Parade was another success this year. The Lions club organizes the event. Participants make floats the can be pulled by manpower; people walk their pets- dogs, cats, horses. Santa and Mrs. Claus ride on a wagon pulled by horses. And the club members collect donations for the local food bank along the way. The Lions provide treat bags for Santa to hand out afterwards at the arena, and over three hundred hotdogs were served to the hungry crowds this year. It was a fun afternoon!

At the Mitchell Lions Club March meeting Lion Dick Thorne (centre) and Lion Tom Heath (right) were each recognized for being a member of the Mitchell Lions Club for over 50 years. Club President Joe Waite made the presentations and extended congratulations on behalf of Lions International and the Mitchell Club members.

The Kearney Lions Club District A12

The Kearney Lions are having a very busy 2006. In February, the Club hosted a family skate and bonfire to launch the Kearney Winter Fest &

Dog Sled Race Week-end. Over 100 participated and enjoyed excellent ice conditions, a warm fire, hot dogs & hot chocolate.

Also in February the Club welcomed two new members, Art Broeckel and Ron Patton. Pictured with Lions Art and Ron are their proud sponsors, Lion Orma Tilley and Lion Elton Taverner.

In April, the Club held an Open House to present Lionism to the Kearney Community. A chili and garlic bread supper was served, the MERL team did their thing, and everyone had a great time. At press time we did not have the tally of attendees or the number of new members.

The first week-end in May is the Adopt-A-Highway/Highway Cleanup including Kearney streets and parks, followed the second week-end with the Charlie Fetterley 10kms Memorial Walkathon, and then the long week-end with the Kearney Lions Annual Black Fly Sale. The first week-end in July is the 4th Annual Lobster Fest. This is a huge hit with approximately 260 lobster lovers participating. Tickets go fast so get yours early.

Better to Hear You

Usborne Central received a big boost in April from the Centralia-Huron Park Lions Club, who donated $1,700 to the school, allowing for the purchase of a new FM amplifier system. The school already has two FM systems and hopes to buy three or four more. The system involves the teacher wearing a headset with a microphone that amplifies his/her voice through a speaker at the back of the room. The system allows the teacher to speak in a normal speaking voice and filters out background noise. Student advisory council secretary Lisa Denotter said the system benefits all students, including those with hearing or learning disabilities. Each system costs over $1,600, and principal Gladys Rock said they are becoming more common in schools.

Lions Give $50,000

The Galt Cambridge Lions were proud to present the Cambridge Memorial Hospital with $50,000 for urgently needed hospital equipment -"Our club has a long history of supporting health care locally" said club President Gary Warren. This has been an extra special year in the hospital's long due expansion plans in this fast growing community. Who knows, but we would like to think the Lions sizeable donation may have inspired authorities, as within 10 days the Government approved $60,000,000 expansion?

The Cambridge Hospital has been waging an aggressive campaign to replace all 220 badly outdated patient beds and this $50,000 will go toward replacing a number of them. The beds take into account the ergonomic needs of the patient, physician, nursing and other health-care professionals featuring the highest quality design.

Chief executive officer Julia Dumanian of the hospital accepted the Cheque from club President Gary Warren, and said "The gift from the club will have an immediate impact on thousands of patients treated annually at Cambridge Memorial Hospital".

In February the Fowlers Corners & District Lions Club held a very special meeting. The proceeds from the Annual Sportsman Lottery were to be publicly distributed to the named charities. The Club was able to donate over $9000 in total and wishes to thank all those individuals who helped support these worthwhile causes by purchasing lottery tickets in the fall. The main recipients were: Lions Camp Kirk Foundation, a summer camp for children with learning disabilities $1750; CNIB Peterborough $1750; Five Counties Children Center $1750; Canadian Diabetes Association Peterborough $1350; Brock Mission and Cameron House $1350; Local children's sports and community needs $1100. A highlight of the evening was Dave Adam's announcement that the club's cumulative donations to Five Counties has surpassed $51,000.

The Lions Hall in Orange Corners has undergone some much needed renovations which could not have been accomplished without two very special groups of people. The Lions came together and did most of the work and special thanks go to Bob vanDompseler who co-ordinated the effort. Many trades people and businesses donated of their time, expertise, labour and materials to this project and several were in attendance to receive the Clubs heartfelt appreciation for their generosity.
